★ Projects

Catering Management System

I developed a catering management system tailored for a restaurant, focusing on a user-friendly interface. The intuitive design streamlined order placements and event scheduling, significantly enhancing the establishment's operational efficiency and ensuring seamless coordination between kitchen staff and event planners.

Football Management System

I developed a football management database system tailored for football clubs. The user-friendly interface facilitated smooth oversight of staff and player details. Clubs experienced heightened efficiency in managing rosters, contracts, and training schedules, ensuring that administrative tasks were as coordinated as on-field plays.
